Exodus 19:4—6

A new identity

“⁴ You yourselves have seen what I did to Egypt, and how I carried you on eagles’ wings and brought you to myself. ⁵ Now if you obey me fully and keep my covenant, then out of all nations you will be my treasured possession. Although the whole earth is mine, ⁶ you will be for me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.” These are the words you are to speak to the Israelites.’

Exodus

1 Peter 2:9–10

9 But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's special possession, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. 10 Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of God; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

Exodus

The Ten Commandments

A new law of love

ACC/comm.ch

36 ‘Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?’ 37 Jesus replied: “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.” 39 This is the first and greatest commandment. 39 And the second is like it: “Love your neighbour as yourself.” 40 All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments.’

How do we see the Ten Commandments?

“Oh, how I love your law! I meditate on it all day long. Your statutes are wonderful; therefore I obey them. I open my mouth and pant, longing for your commands.” Psalm 119:97, 129, 131
